

Application to permanently transfer all or part of a water licence to other land

Water Act 2000

Purpose of the form

To allow the holder of a water licence to apply to permanently transfer all or part of a water licence to other landowners so that it attaches to other land if allowed under the Water Act 2000 and subordinate legislation.

This application must be made jointly by the holder of the original water licence (the transferor) and the proposed transferee.

The transferor can apply to transfer only one water licence per application form; a separate application form must be completed for each additional water licence.

However, the transferee may nominate more than one water licence under Part D of this application form to receive the water.

Mandatory attachments

The following documentation must be attached to the application:

- checkbox a statutory declaration stating that each person (an interested entity) who has a financial or other interest in the transferor's land to which the water licence relates has been notified in writing of the proposed transfer checkbox a copy of the written consent of each interested entity checkbox payment of the prescribed application fee.
