

Application for approval to decant LP gas in a residential area

This application form may be used to apply for approval to decant liquefied petroleum (LP) gas from once container to another in a residential area under the Petroleum and Gas (Production and Safety) Act 2004 and subordinate legislation.

Applicant details

Full name (individual or corporation)
Address
Postal address
Telephone	Email

Proposed location

Address

Supporting information

The following information must be provided with the application to decant LP gas in a residential area:

- A statement outlining the proposed activity including the nature of the business, proposed location, hours of operation, storage, security, anticipated frequency and cylinder volumes.
- Written town planning approval or exemption from the relevant local government to decant LP gas at the proposed location.
- A copy of the decanting procedure to be followed.

Declaration

I declare that the applicant is a suitable person to hold an approval to decant LP gas in a residential area and that this application is true and correct at the time of lodgement.

Full name (individual)
Signature	Date

Submit your application via email to gassafe@dnrme.qld.gov.au

